

The Waretown Historical Society announces
The Little Red Schoolhouse Museum's

Local Lore

Informal, memorable, and FREE!

August 3, 2 - 3 pm
“Under the Hindenburg”

Robert Buchanan recounts his May 6, 1937 experience, as part of the civilian ground crew for the famous dirigible, the Hindenburg. Mr. Buchaman's well documented remembrances of personal experiences are interwoven with historic details and gathered evidences, even recently published.

August 17, 2-3 pm
“Decoys by Kirby”

A program for all ages.

An experienced woodworker, Ken Kirby has been carving and painting decoys for 25 years. With a generous knowledge of the history of decoy hunting and decoy carving, Ken is a specialist in classic and shore bird decoys. A polished storyteller, Kirby will introduce pieces from his collection and demonstrate use of traditional tools.

As space is limited, please call 609-971-2658 to reserve seats for these FREE events at the

LITTLE RED SCHOOL HOUSE MUSEUM
182 WELLS MILL ROAD
(WARETOWN RECREATION AREA)
WARETOWN, NJ